

The Haskell Barn

Medium

Oil on canvas

Description

A scene of the old Haskell Barns, depicting the larger main barn structure at far left, with the five-stall horse barn wing as the main focus of the image. At right, an old hay wagon with remnants of its original blue paint. Pale yellow and tan tufts of dried grasses dot the barnyard in front of the stalls. A pale blue sky looms above the barns, with hints of thin white clouds just visible. The painting retains its original frame of a medium brown angular beveled wood.
