Description

A bearded gentleman dressed in a brown coat and black hat riding in a carriage which is painted black with yellow wheels with his young son wearing a light blue jacket and a cap. The carriage, shown crossing a grassy field, is pulled by a gray horse and a sorrel or chestnut colored horse. The carriage is shown heading toward the right side of the painting. A bright streak of sunlight hits the grass just in front of the carriage. A moody, dark sky is enhanced by clouds reflecting the coppery color of a late day sun. A small stretch of worm fencing appears in the middle distance on the left edge of the painting.
