Grave Yard of Old Tennent Church

Primary Maker

John D. Quackenbush

Medium

Description

Depiction of a two story, five bay church with a three bay gable end surmounted by a cupola capped by a conical roof and a rooster shaped weather vane. A single chimney extends above the center of the ridge line. The church is surrounded by a mix of bare trees and evergreen trees. Numerous gravestones surround the structure. Two males stand among the stones, the foreground figure pointing to one that reads "In Memory of Sarah wife of James Hernert who departed this life January 10th 1846 Aged, 63 years 2 months and 17 days." Other legible family names on the tombstones are Covenhoven, Pittenger, Combs, Gulick and Baird. Grassy areas in the foreground appear as wavy lines.
