

Basic Detail Report

Dram Flask

Primary Maker

Johann Christoph Heyne

Medium

Pewter

Description

A pewter flask with a flattened circular body and molded sets of concentric circles on either side. The neck is short and thick, with molded screw threads. One side of the flask is a scratched star, and on the other a crudely incised monogram, as well as a year "1776" and partial year "177."

Dimensions

4.75 × 4.5 × 2.5 in. (12.1 × 11.4 × 6.4 cm)