Description

A child's cast iron horse and wagon toy, consisting of a green painted wagon with canted side panels, a curved roof, rear step, and front wagon seat, with "ICE" in molded florid lettering on both sides, picked out in gold. The large rear wheels are painted red and are permanently attached to the underside of the wagon box. The toy's small red-painted front wheels are fixed to a singletree to which a pair of horses - one brown and one black - are fastened. This separate section attaches to the wagon with a small tabbed pin and socket and allow the front wheels to turn and pivot.
