

Dressing Table

Medium

Cherry, tulip, and hard pine

Description

A dressing table that features a deep overhanging top constructed with two boards and enriched with molded edges and shaped front corners. Five drawers are arranged in two rows. The upper central drawer is flanked by two smaller ones. Two lower drawers align with those of the same size above them. All have thumbnail molded edges and original brass bails with large backplates. A brass escutcheon with lock was installed on the center drawer. The table's boldly curved and arched skirt profile, laid out with a compass, is accentuated by applied cockbeading fastened with rosehead nails. Four delicate cabriole legs taper to unique upturned and pointed feet.
