

Table

Medium

Cherry, and hard pine

Description

A small-sized round table with a plain pine top fastened with original screws and a hand wrought nail to a single batten underneath that has been chamfered on its ends. The cherry frame consists of simple rails beaded on their lower edge, four baluster turned and splayed legs, and four rectangular stretchers that are worn on their upper edge. The legs end in ball feet that have also worn. The table retains a very old dark red stained finish.
