Maple, and oak

Description

This leather upholstered side chair includes an intricately carved crest rail with a central foliate spray flanked by two mirror image C-scrolls. The baluster and column turned rear stiles, topped with ball and nipple finials, rake back below the seat rails. The two front block and baluster turned posts and plain rear legs are braced with a double ball and reel turned front stretcher and plain rectangular side and rear stretchers. The arch top back panel and seat have been reupholstered with modern brown leather held in place by two rows of spaced brass upholstery nails.
