

Child's Rocking Commode Chair

Medium

Red painted pine

Description

A four board child's commode chair on rockers, with a back of a single panel ornamented by a circular cut out shape on its crest. The side panels are cut out in shaped arm rests with hand terminals at the front. The seat contains a central circular cut out. Both rockers are made up of two parts - an inner original rocker, and another longer one added outside and nailed in place with hand wrought nails. An early split in the left hand side of the back panel has been stabilized with a horizontal cleat just under the crest. The chair is finished in old red paint.
