

Court House Bell

Medium

Cast and wrought iron, bronze

Description

A cast iron bell with two bands of foliate scrollwork above and below a central inscription and date. A molded inscription reads "SOLI DEO GLORIA A 1756," which translates from Latin to "Glory to God alone," and the year 1756. The bell is mounted to a crossbar which fits into arched bracket mounts to the left and right, allowing the assembly to swing freely.
