

Breeches

Medium

Silk, linen, cotton

Description

A pair of men's breeches in pale blue silk, fully lined with thin plain woven cotton muslin. The breeches are constructed with a three-button front fall with a button waistband. Pockets with button flaps are set on both left and right side seams, with an additional small watch pocket set into the left side of the waistband. The waistband adjusts at the center back with two pairs of eyelets and laces without a gusset panel. The closefitting breeches close along the left and right sides of the legs with seven self-covered buttons and buckle straps.
