Salt glazed stoneware

Description

A salt-glazed stoneware jug, with a mottled dark brownish gray body. The jug's ovoid shape tapers to a footless base. The thick neck includes multiple shallow incised banding up to the flanged lip, with a large vertical strap handle set at the neck base. The front of the jug is decorated with an incised double "eye and heart" motif, highlighted with cobalt blue. The jug's neck slumped at both left and right sides during the vessel's original firing.
