Tin glazed earthenware

Description
