

Boy's Suit

Medium

Velvet, metallic lace, cotton twill, silk

Description

A boy's three piece formal suit, known as a "Little Lord Fauntleroy," consisting of jacket, knickers, and a matching cap, all of rich dark blue velvet. The jacket has a collarless round neckline, with a blind placket button front, a low waist with an attached buttoned sash, a single pocket at the proper right waist, a scalloped tabbed hem, and long sleeves with three slashes on the upper arms, lined with white plain woven silk. Silver metallic lace trim is sewn around the neck, slashes, sash, and along the tabbed hem. The suit's knickers are also of dark blue velvet and constructed with a three-button blind placket front closure, buttons at the waistband for suspenders, metallic silver lace trim and black velvet ribbon bows at the knees, and a lining of glazed brown cotton twill. The outfit also includes a brimless hat of dark blue velvet, with a tabbed border with a wired edge for shaping and support, metallic silver lace trim, and off-white cotton gauze lining.
