Description

This two piece gown consists of skirt and bodice, both in rose pink corded silk. The bodice includes a hidden front fastening along the proper left edge of the bodice front. Front and back yoke are inset panels of dark rose pink cotton velvet. The gown includes the extremely large "gigot" sleeves, trimmed with rosettes of velvet and corded silk, tapering to closely fitted forearms. The bodice also includes bold trimmings of silk and velvet twisted bandings with numerous rosettes of matching fabric. The high collar is edged with narrow white lace. The separate skirt is lined with glazed cotton and an addition interlining, possibly of wool flannel or other soft material. The inside of the skirt is also supported with the addition of three rows of starched ruffles and lace to maintain the gown's silhouette. The skirt fastens at the left front hip with hidden hooks and eyes. Trimmings of silk and velvet bandings are applied down the left front of the skirt. The bodice and sleeves are lined with tan glazed cotton. The bodice includes 14 boning channels sewing inside to maintain shape.
