Bathing Suit

Medium

Cotton, elastic, nylon, steel zipper and hooks and eyes

Description

A woman's two-piece bathing suit, constructed of woven lightweight cotton in a bright print of hot pink and white stylized floral bands. The upper portion of the suit has a fitted bodice with cup style bra support in white nylon with elastic underbanding, piped waist seam, and flared mini skirt ending at upper thigh, with two finished side seam slits. The bodice closes with a back zipper and inner hooks and eyes. Two pairs of narrow piping straps in pale pink are sewn to front and back of the suit, but can be tucked or folded into the bodice to appear as a strapless bodice. The matching underpants are constructed in a bloomer or "bubble" style, with elastic waistband and legs, and a hook and eye rear waistband closure. Bodice and underpants are attached via a narrow elastic strap.
