Quilt

Medium

Glazed cotton chintz, variety of woven and printed cotton calicos

Description

A small doll-sized quilt, with a front comprised of four four-patch blocks set on point with alternating blocks of pale yellow, tan, and white narrow plaid. Three of the four-patch blocks include a variety of light pink prints with darker brown prints, with a fourth four-patch block of light brown micro-check and darker brown/white/black "squiggle" overall pattern. Some of the yellow plaid alternate blocks have been pieced with identical fabrics. A wide border sash is set of pale blue and white striping with small pink corner blocks. A narrow edging runs along all four sides and appears to be the same fabric as the alternate plaid blocks. The backing consists of two pieces of a very early glazed cotton chintz in a red/pink floral bunch on a dark brown ground. The panel is quilted with outline stitches following the on-point blocks.
