Description

A small doll's quilt in a variation of the Flying Geese pattern, with elongated rectangles straight set five by eight without sashing, in a variety of soft toned printed cottons in stripes, florals, geometrics, and other garment pattern and weight yardage. The piecing appears to be all hand sewn, with a plain off white cotton fabric backing and a thin cotton batting. The quilting, in a hanging diamond pattern, and the narrow white cotton binding, are machine sewn.
