

Vest or Hug-Me-Tight

Medium

Wool yarn

Description

A woman's sleeveless adjustable vest, known as a hug-me-tight, constructed of thick worsted weight wool yarn. The high round necked vest is made primarily of bright red yarn, with black borders and edging along neck, front, waist, and back. The vest has no closure, but was designed to be pinned or simply "grip" the garment below. The sides of the vest are adjustable and feature a braided red and black yarn cording that laces crosswise along the open spaces between the crocheted blocks, ending at the waist with two black and red yarn tassels, allowing the vest to be adjusted for fit. On the back, appliqued spirals of black and red yarn add decorative detail at the shoulder blades.
