Plate

Medium

White earthenware

Description

A small white earthenware circular plate, with molded rim and shallow base rim. The plate features a bright blue transfer print in the center depicting two men working in a smithy or blacksmith's shop, with the motto "He that hath an estate / At the working man's house hunger looks in but dares not enter / Industry pays debts, while despair meraseth them." The plate border is ornamented with hand-painted brightly colored dabs and wisps of apple green, cherry red, yellow, and bright blue. The rim of the plate is edged with a narrow band of lilac lustre glaze.
