Description

Three-quarter length portrait of a middle aged male figure facing right, wearing a bright royal blue coat with four gold buttons showing, black vest, white shirt with high collar, and a white stock. He wears his dark brown hair arranged in a high pompadour falling above the forehead, with long sideburns brushed forward toward his cheeks. The background is a subdued, shaded bluish gray-green. He has ruddy cheeks and full face, with bright blue eyes and a hint of a smile. The paper is affixed to white pine stretchers, and lined with a newspaper sheet from The True American that is dated 4 October 1826, and another newspaper fragment glued to the stretcher top from the New Jersey Patriot dated 14 June 182[?] No. 44.
