Holmes-Hendrickson House

Primary Maker

Henry Thomas Gulick

Medium

Oil on masonite

Description

View of a white-painted farmhouse with a five-bay facade, flaring eaves, a kitchen wing to the right with a three-bay facade, and three chimneys. There is a raised stoop in front of the central main entrance, a cellarway door to its right, a door into the kitchen wing, and an exposed brick back to the kitchen fireplace. Three small eyebrow windows provide illumination to the second floor. The house is set in a grassy area with paths leading to it. Five trees are shown in the foreground in front of the house. The sky is a bright blue with light, white clouds.
