Description

Three-quarter view of a shingled, red painted church with two entrances on the gable end surmounted by a cupola capped with a half-dome roof and weather vane. Pinnacles ornament the corners of the cupola base. Four gothic arched windows appear on the long elevation. There is a lower extension to the rear of the building. Five trees surround the church, which is surrounded by a picket fence. A street with a blue stone sidewalk establishes the foreground. The sky is mottled blue that transitions to pink on the horizon. A flock of birds fly to
