Description

A landscape view showing a farmstead right of center in the middle distance. It consists of a story and a half house, a one story wing attached to it on the left, a barn beyond it, and a small outbuilding to the right of the barn. Two trees in the foreground frame the farmstead, one on its left, and another on its right forming the edge of the print. The vista shows scattered trees on the farmland. A cluster of rocks appear in the lower right, mixed with scrub growth. Two males wearing hats are shown to the left of center in the foreground, one seated on the ground. Both carry long barrel guns. Three cows are grazing in the lower left middle distance. The woodcut has been enhanced with watercolors.
