Description

A colorful, animated view of a long, narrow pond or lake with high banks. Many rowboats are in use, or drawn up on the shore. Three small boats have cloth canopies. At least two sailboats appear in the distance. A dirt roadway paralleled by a path follows the near shore. A passenger wagon filled with people in the lower right is drawn by two horses, while a carriage in the center headed in the opposite direction is drawn by a single horse. A tree stump occupies the center foreground, with a grove of trees beyond on the left. An arched bridge over a small stream and part of a fence are also part of the near shore landscape. People are seen walking along the pathway and road, while another person readies a boat. The far shore also has a pathway along its crest, while two story houses surrounded by trees have been built close to it. There is a suggestion of a sunset sky along the horizon.
