

Table

Primary Maker

Jonathan Potter Holmes

Medium

Maple, and hard pine

Description

This tavern-style table consists of a maple and hard pine frame with a plain rectangular top widely overhanging four baluster-turned legs and a plain recessed frame. The legs of the table end in small ball feet and are braced with four plain stretchers that are beaded on their lower edge. The entire table has been finished with several layers of paint, with a heavy black layer applied over earlier coats of blue and green.
