

Monckton Sword and Scabbard

Medium

Steel, wood, silver, leather

Description

Engraved blade of steel, pommel and hilt of silver, and grip of wood wrapped with silver bands and braid. The rococo style engraving on the blade extends 7.25 inches from the pommel towards the tip. One side depicts a male figure wearing a military uniform in a cartouche. The other side is engraved with a stylized classical cupid-like figure above a parchment that is inscribed, "Un me suffit," which roughly translates from French to "One is enough." The scabbard with silver fittings is made of leather, and measures 29.75 inches long.
