

Pair of Embroidered Slippers

Medium

Plied wool thread on waste canvas

Description

Two rectangular panels of waste canvas both embroidered with similar Y shaped forms worked in plied wool yarn in vibrant shades of black, dark green, emerald green, grass green, crimson, scarlet, cerise, orange, magenta, rose, pale pink, medium brown, pale tan, and off white. All needlework is done in cross stitch. The heavily embroidered Y shaped forms, which were intended to be made up into slippers, comprise a bold pattern of scattered full-blown shaded pink, purple, and crimson roses atop abundant green leaves and set against a black background. One of the panels has been extended with additional black thread added along the outer right edge and at the toe.
